Conference Extras

Registration for the following conference "extras" is at check-in at the conference ...

First Issue Competition

Newspaper/newsmagazine staffs are encouraged to bring a copy of their first issue for the competition. Ribbons for best overall, best front page, best news coverage, best opinion coverage, best feature coverage, best sports coverage, best photography and best layout will be awarded.

On-site Critique

Newspaper/newsmagazine staffs may bring a copy of their product/program for an on-site review by an evaluator. The evaluator will spend 20 minutes with no more than three members of the staff to discuss your product/program. Sign-up is first-come, first-serve at registration.

On-the-spot Photojournalism Competition

Participants must bring their own camera and any card readers/cords necessary to download their photos to a PC. The competition will be held on Thursday, Sept. 23. Information will be given at registration.

Hotel Information

A limited number of hotel rooms are being reserved for the GSPA Conference at the Holiday Inn hotels in downtown Athens. The hotels are conveniently located in downtown Athens near several local eateries and just off the campus of the University of Georgia. They are within walking distance of the Tate Center.

Special rates are available for the evening of Wednesday, Sept. 22. The majority of rooms available are two double-bed, non-smoking rooms. A few king and queen-size rooms are also available for advisers and chaperones. To reserve rooms at the special rate, contact the Holiday Inn Athens hotels at 706-549-4433 and ask for the "Georgia Scholastic Press Association block." The deadline to reserve rooms at the special rate is Thursday, Sept. 10.

Please note that GSPA is not responsible for hotel reservations, including handling room payments. Please plan for separate payments for conference registration and hotel rooms.
